DETAILED ACTION

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Timothy Wall on 01/23/2008.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 20, line 4: after "instruction", replace "in a VAD initiated call" with – after failing to find a call destination number --.

Claim 20, line 7: after "obtain", change "a" to – the --.

Delete claim 21.

Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Mahoney (US 6,940,951) discloses a system for voice activated dialing (VAD) in figure 1, and teaches that if a local VAD device, such as computer 1, fails to find a destination number in response to a spoken name, then the VAD device advises a user to use conventional keypad dialing, or to get help from a directory assistance service provider (column 8, lines 44-47, 58-67; column 9, line 1). Mahoney fails to teach forwarding a VAD instruction to a networked based VAD module. McKinley (US 6,665,377) discloses another VAD system in figure 1, and teaches that if a first VAD device 102 cannot locate a destination telephone number based on a caller's utterance, then forwards at least part of the utterance to a second VAD device 106 via a data network 108 to retrieve the destination telephone number. The first VAD device 102 then dials the retrieved destination number for the caller. McKinley fails to teach a customer premises based VAD device, and also fails to teach dialing the destination telephone number by the second VAD device 106. Any combination of Mahoney and McKinley fails to teach forwarding at least part of a VAD instruction to a networked (second, or remote) VAD module via a gateway, and the networked VAD module locates and dials the call destination number as recited in claim 20.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
